2nd Part

40

She straight her light green silk- en coats up tuck- ed And 45

may for Mill, and thyme for Thyrsis plucked, Which when she brought he clasp'd her by the middle, And kiss'd her sweet, and kiss'd her sweet, but could not read her riddle. Ah, fool! Ah, fool! With that the nymph set up a laughter And blush'd and ran and ran away, and ran and ran away, and ran and ran away, and

50

55

60

65

ran and ran away; and he ran after, and he ran after, after, and he ran after, after, and he ran after, after.

70
