I

10 15

saw my la-dy weep-ing, And sor-row proud

20 25

to be ad-van-ced so In those fair

30 35

eyes, in those fair eyes where all per-fec-tions kept. Her face was full of woe, But such a woe,

40 45

50

be-lieve me, as wins more hearts

55 60

Than mirth can do,

65

than mirth can do with her en-ti-cing parts.
