

When Laura smiles

Philip Rosseter

When Lau- ra smiles, - - -
 The spi- rits that re- - main,
 Di- an- a's eyes - - - Love hath no fire - - - her sight re - vives - - -

 the spi- rits that re- - main are not a- dor- - ned but what he steals - - -

5 both night and day; The earth and in flee- ting air Af- fact for with great- er power eyes. Than Lau- ra's, from her bright no Time hath no hea- ven views with de-pas- time to en- - when she lifts a-pow- er but that which

10

light - - - her wan- ton play; And her twine - - - her tress- ed hair; The - while - - - for sport to lure. But when in - - - her plea- sure lies. For she

BII - - - a a a a a a

15

speech with ev - er flow - ing mus - ic birds think sweet Au- ro- ra, Mor- ning's she her eyes en- clos- eth, blind- ness with her di- vine beau- ties all the 20

doth re- doth pair The cru - el wounds of queen, doth ap- shine From her bright sphere when doth world ap- sub- pear dues, The And chief- est grace of spi- rit my seat- ed there. vine.
 spi- rit my seat- ed there. vine.

a a e f a r

25

sor - row and - un- tamed des- pair.
 Lau- ra shows - her looks di- vine. beau- ty sweet- - ly seat- ed there.
 spi- rit my seat- ed there. vine.
 spi- rit my seat- ed there. vine.

a a a a a a

[a]