The first system of the musical score for 'La Circe' features four staves. The top three staves are for Violin 1, Violin 2, and Bass viol, all in treble clef with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. The Archlute part is on a four-line staff with a C-clef, containing rhythmic notation and letters (a, b, r) indicating fingerings or specific notes. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system continues the musical score. It includes a measure number '5' above the first staff. The notation for the strings and Archlute continues, with the Archlute part showing more rhythmic patterns and letters. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system of the musical score continues the piece. It features the same four staves as the previous systems. The Archlute part includes a double bar line and the marking 'all' below it. The system concludes with a double bar line.
