

21. O sweet delight

Thomas Campion

O sweet de- light, O more than hu- man bliss, With her to live that Such love as this the gold- en times did know, When all did reap, yet

5
ev- er lov- ing is! To hear her speak whose words so well are none took care to sow. Such love as this an end- less sum- mer placed, That she by them, as they in her, are graced; Those looks to view that makes, And all dis- taste from frail af- fec- tion takes. So lov'd, so blest in feast the view- er's eye, How blest is he that may so live and die!

10

15
my be- lov'd am I, Which till their eyes ache, let iron men en- vy.