

Author of light

Thomas Campion

Au- thor of light, re- vive my - dy- ing spright; Re-
Foun- tain of health, my soul's deep - wounds re- cure; Sweet deem it from - the snares of - all- con- found- ing night.

5

show'rs of pi- - ty rain, wash - my un- clean- ness pure.

10

Lord, light me to thy bles- sed way: For blind, for blind with world- ly vain
One drop of thy de- si- red grace The faint, the faint and fad- ing heart de- - sires, I wan- der - as - a stray. Sun and - can - raise, and in joy's - bo- - som place. Sin and - moon, stars and - un- der- lights I see, But all their glodeath, Hell and - tempt ing fiends may rage; But God his own

15

20

rious beams are mists and dark- ness, being com- par'd to Thee.
will guard, and their sharp pains and grief in time as- suage.