

Bravely decked, come forth Thomas Campion

Brave- ly deck'd come forth bright day, Thine hours with Brit- ons fro- lic at your board, But first sing Death had en- ter'd in the gate, And ru- in the God His peace- ful mon- arch chose, To him the

a

5

ro- ses strew thy way, As they well re- mem- ber.
 prais- es to the Lord In your con- gre- ga- tions.
 was crept near the state; But heav'n all re- veal- ed.
 mist He did dis- close, To him, and none o- ther;

a

10

Thou re- ceiv'd shalt be with feasts, Come chief- est of the Bri- ish
 He pre- serv'd your state a- lone, His lov- ing grace hath made you Fie- ry pow- der hell did make, Which rea- dy long the flame to This He did, O king, for thee, That thou thine own re- nown might'st

a

guests, Thou fifth of No- vem- ber. Thou with tri- umph one Of His cho- sen na- tions. But this light must take, Lay in shade con- ceal- ed. God us help'd of see, Which no time can smo- ther; May bless'd Charles thy shalt ex- ceed In the strict- est em- ber; For by thy re-hal- low'd be With your best ob- la- tions; Praise the Lord, for His free grace, None to Him ap- peal- ed; For none was so com- fort be Firm- er than his bro- ther, May his heart the 20

 turn the Lord re- cords His bless- ed deed. on- ly great and mer- ci- ful is He.
 bad to fear the trea- son of the place.
 love of peace, and wis- dom learn from thee.