

When thou must home

Thomas Campion

5

When thou must home to shades of un-der-ground, And there ar- rived, a new Then wilt thou speak of ban- quet-ting de- lights, Of masks and rev- els which

10

ad- mir- ed guest, The beau-teous spi- rits do in- girt thee round, White I- o-sweet youth did make, Of tour- neys and great chal- len- ges of knights, And all these pe, blythe He- len and the rest, To hear the sto- ries of tri- umphs for thy beau- ty's sake. When thou hast told these hon-

15

20

(b)

thy fin- ished love From that smooth tongue, whose mu- sic hell can move.
ours done to thee, then tell, O tell how thou didst mur- der me.