

6. He that hath no mistress

William Corkine

He that hath no mis- tress must not wear a fa- vor; he that woos a mis- tress must serve be- fore he have her. He that hath no bed- fellow must lie a- lone, and he that hath no la- dy must be content with none. And so must I, for why, a- las, my love and I am part- ed, my love and I am part- ed. False Cu- pid, 20

5

10

15

I will have thee whip'd and have thy mo- ther cart- ed.

1) Dot added by editor.