

11. Think you to seduce me so?

William Corkine

Think you to se- duce me so with words that have no
 Learn to speak first, then to woo, to woo- ing much per-
 If with wit we be de- ceiv'd, our falls may be ex-

5

mean- ing. Par-rots can learn so to speak our tain- eth. He that hath not art to hide soon cus- ed. Seem- ing good with flat- t'ry grac'd is voice by pie- ces glean- ing. Nur- ses teach their child- ren fal- ters when he fain- eth, and as one that wants his but of few re- fus- ed, but of all ac- curs'd are so a- bout the time of wean- ing, nur- ses ing.

5

 wits, he smiles when he com- plain- eth, and as eth.
 they that are by fools a- bus- ed, but of ed.

10

1 2