

12. Shall a frown or angry eye?

William Corkine

Shall a frown or an- gry eye,
 Shall I woo her with in- in de- spite?
 Shall I then with pa- tient mind

5 shall a word un- fit- ly plac- ed, shall a Shall I turn her from her fly- ing? Shall I still at- tend her way- ward plea- sure? Time will 10 sha- dow make me fly, as I were with tempt her with de- light? Shall I laugh out make her prove more kind. Let her coy- ness ti- gers chas- ed? Love must not be her de- ny- ing? No, be- ware of then take lei- sure; pains are wor- thy so dis grac- ed, love must not lov- ers cry- ing, no, be- ware such a trea- sure, pains are wor-be so dis- grac- ed.

 of lov- ers cry- ing.
 thy such a trea- sure.