

14. Away, away! Call back

William Corkine

8 A- way, a- way, a- way! Call back what you have laid, when you did vow to 5 live and die a maid. O, if you knew what shame to them be- fell, that dance a- bout with 10 bob- tail apes in hell, you'd break your oath. And for a world of gain, From Hy- men's pleas- ing sports no more ab- stain. Your- self your vir- gin

15

20

Figured bass: a a a r a a a a a r a a a a a a a a a a a a 25

gir- dle would di- vide, and put a- side, and put a- side, and put a- side the the maid- en

Figured bass: a r a a r a a a r a a a a a a a a a a a a 30

veil that hides the chief- est gem of Na- ture, and would lie pros-

Figured bass: r a a a r a r a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a 35

trate to ev-'ry peas-ant that goes by ra-ther than un-der-go such shame.

40

45

No tongue can tell what in-ju-ry is done to maids in hell, no tongue can tell what in-ju-ry is done to maids in hell.

50

