

Awake Sweet Love

John Dowland

5

A- wake, sweet love, thou art re- turned My heart, which long in
If she es- teem thee now aught worth, She will not grieve thy ab- sence mourned, Lives now in per- fect joy.

10

love hence- forth, Which so des- pair hath proved.

15

Let love, which ne- ver ab- sent dies, Now live for- ev- er in her
Des- pair hath pro- ved now in me That love will not in- con- stant eyes, whence came my first an- noy. On- ly her self hath be, Though long in vain I loved. If she at last re-seem-ed fair, She, on-ly I could love, She on-ly drove ward thy love And all thy harms re-pair, Thy hap-pi-ness

20

25

30

me to des-pair When she un-kind did prove. Des-pair did will sweet-er prove Raised up from deep des-pair. And if that make me wish to die, That I my joys might end.

35

now thou wel-come be When thou with her dost meet,

40

She on-ly, which did make me fly, My state may now a-mend.
She all this while but played with thee To make thy joys more sweet.