

Disdain me still

John Dowland

5

Dis-dain me still, that I may ev-er love, For who his
As heat to life, so is de-sire-to love, And these once

10

Love en-joys - can love, can love no - - more. The war - - once quench'd both life, - both life and love, and love are gone. Let not - - my past, with ease - men cow- - ards prove: And ships re- - - turn'd do - tears, my tears - thy vir- - tue move, Like bas- er - - met- tals -

Figured bass line: a r a a | e r r r a | e r r r a | e a a a rot up- on the shore. And - though thou frown, I'll say thou do not melt too soon. Laugh - at my woes al- though I Figured bass line: e a a | a r e r b r a | b e b e r e a art most fair, most - - fair: And still I'll - love and still I'll ev- er mourn, ev- - er mourn, Love sur- - - feits, love sur- feits

- love, I'll love, though still, though still - I must des- pair.
 - with re- ward, his nurse is scorn, - his nurse is scorn.