

If that a sinner's sighs

John Dowland

Lute part

The musical score is written on a six-line staff with a C-clef and a common time signature. It features various musical notations including notes, rests, and ornaments. The piece is divided into measures, with measure numbers 5, 10, 15, 20, and 25 marked. The notation includes a variety of note values and rests, with some notes having a delta symbol above them. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
